

dent to your mind - just explain how that happened to refresh your recollection?

A Well, because she had moved on that date.

Q What date?

A On the same night, the 14th of September, 1922.

Q What time?

A What do you mean?

Q What time?

A What time did my mother move?

Q No, what time were the murders committed on September 14th 1922?

A Well, somewheres around ten o'clock, or a little after ten, or maybe a few minutes before - I am not positive as to time.

Q Mr. Simpson didn't ask you anything about time, did he?

MR. SIMPSON: I object to that your Honor. Perhaps he will allow you to rule on that objection.

I object on the ground that what I asked her is perfectly apparent and her opinion is immaterial. This is in no sense a trial. Your Honor is simply, through courtesy, allowing them to appear. They have no right as I understand it. I am asking your Honor to rule on my objection; as to whether I asked her about time is immaterial. Whether I have been derelict in my
